

ROUND 3 INTERVIEW: CHESSON HADLEY
November 19, 2016

Q. Chesson, the putter was going, 120 feet of putts today including that 60-footer at 10. That was a heck of a par save.

CHESSON HADLEY: Yeah, I didn't hit many good shots on that hole. Anyway, I didn't even think I made that many feet of putts. I guess I did kind of clean up around the hole very well. But yeah, that was kind of a round-saver in a way. It was playing really hard out there today. The scores were significantly higher than they have been just because the wind was up. Just really pleased with the way I hung in there today. I would like to put the ball in the fairway a little bit more tomorrow so hopefully I can do that. I'm going to head to the range here and get that worked out.

Q. As you know here, it's all be putting out here and your putter has been really good this week and I think it's gotten better. It seems to me like you sped up the process, you're going a little faster with your putting.

CHESSON HADLEY: It may be. I've been working on my stroke a little bit trying to get it a little bit more -- I've always had a tendency to really drag it inside. Maybe a little bit more deliberate. I'm sure my process, routine is probably the same, but you get out here and you get a couple bad timings or you get on the clock a few times, it will speed you up in a hurry.

Q. That last drive at 18 we were bragging about you. You put that out there about 330.

CHESSON HADLEY: Oh, good for me. Yeah, I've been in the gym a lot as you can tell. I've been really throwing the lead around. But no, just down and off the right and I like to sling it, so that's a good one for me.

Q. Talk about tomorrow. You have an opportunity to win, it's been a while, you've won before. Talk about tomorrow.

CHESSON HADLEY: Like you said, it has been a while so I'm sure I'll be nervous. It's just part of the deal. I was a little nervous today getting going, got off to a good start with that birdie. But I think a key tomorrow is just to stay patient. And I've been hitting well this week and made a few putts the last couple days, so just trust that I'm going to give myself opportunities and even if the first one doesn't go in, just know that you're going to have yeah, just stay patient tomorrow. How many times have you heard that?

Q. I've heard it, but you know it's important.

CHESSON HADLEY: It is.
