

SUNG KANG (-17)

Q. How would you sum up your week here in Malaysia at the CIMB Classic? Top-3 finish, definitely a good one for you?

SUNG KANG: I think this is good momentum for me because I haven't been playing very well until this week and then I finally figured something out and striking it a little better. So I think it's going to help me a lot for the next field I play in the fall.

Q. Yeah, you definitely needed a performance like that to give you that big confidence boost?

SUNG KANG: Yeah, it's going to help a lot. I mean, even on Wednesday in the pro-am I wasn't really hitting it that good and all of a sudden I found something and started hitting it way better. So I'll just keep doing it and my chance will come soon, I think.

Q. You started out the day five shots back of Pat. Did you have any thoughts of catching him?

SUNG KANG: Yeah, I was having a chance on 10, but 10 was the turning point. I mean the momentum went the other way. I had a good chance to make birdie and I made double so there's a three-stroke swing. My putting and chipping's not been very solid, so I'm going to go work it out and I'll be fine after that.
