

ROUND 3 INTERVIEW
August 18, 2018

PAULA RETO

Q. Evaluate it.

PAULA RETO: I felt like I didn't have too many putts drop as I wanted to, but 2 under is okay. It sets me up for another good day tomorrow, hopefully.

Q. And has it been a while since you have been so solid for 54 holes? That's not that easy to do, with the rain delay and everything else. It's a lot to manage.

PAULA RETO: Yeah, and I think I got the better draw, too. I didn't have to come out this morning and finish.

But yeah, it's nice to play under par, so I'm not complaining at all. Hopefully I can continue it. But I'm not feeling good, so we'll see.

Q. Did you get any more "Boiler Ups" today, or not?

PAULA RETO: I did. Got like, birdie-up.

Q. Oh, okay.

PAULA RETO: They changed it up.

Q. Birdie-up. Oh, that's good, that's good.

PAULA RETO: But, yeah, I have some friends actually who came out to watch me. It's really nice, yeah.

Q. You got like another solid round.

PAULA RETO: Yeah.

Q. Are you feeling better, too? I mean, I know you're having to manage --

PAULA RETO: Yeah.

Q. -- sort of this mystery almost with your allergy, anyway.

PAULA RETO: Yeah, it's okay today. It's not too bad. So I have just been taking the medicine, and it's been helping, so I can't complain there.

But, yeah, another good day. And it's been good weather today as well, so can't complain.

Q. Okay. Congratulations.

PAULA RETO: Thank you.

Q. Is that friends from college?

PAULA RETO: Yes, some people that used to work at Purdue, and I know they work for the athletic department, so yeah. So it's not friends, it's kind of like acquaintances in a way.

Q. Do they work for Purdue and --

PAULA RETO: Yes, exactly. So I guess they must have driven down. I haven't talked to them yet, so I will talk to them after the round.

Q. Got you. Did you know they were coming?

PAULA RETO: No, no. They just showed up on the first tee. And I'm like, oh, my God, hey.

And then obviously my host family and her sons and everybody came out. They're down here, so --

Q. Oh, cool.

PAULA RETO: Yeah.
