

BEN LEONG (-7)

Q. Even par on your last day, let's just have your reflections on the week.

BEN LEONG: A lot of birdies, a lot of bogeys, but just going to learn from it. It's a process. Definitely a lot of things to work on. First of all, getting healthy again.

Q. Can you elaborate, getting healthy again?

BEN LEONG: I have a really bad flu and cough as well, so just try and get back healthy. I'm glad I grinded out the last couple days.

Q. How would you summarize your --

BEN LEONG: Like I said, it's been an up-and-down week, a lot of birdies and bogeys. I mean, that's golf, you don't have it -- you can't have it every day or every week. Learn from it and move on and try not to make the same mistakes.

Q. (No microphone.)

BEN LEONG: Yeah, I'll be taking a month off. My next tournament will be the World Cup in Melbourne.

Q. (No microphone.)

BEN LEONG: It could be a lot better, it could be a lot worse, but yeah, just take what it gives me.

Q. What are you going to do during the month?

BEN LEONG: Like I said, rest up, definitely spend a couple weeks prepare for World Cup definitely and hopefully we can fly the Malaysian flag again.

Q. You came in the tournament without any expectations. What would you say that you walked away with?

BEN LEONG: Just playing in a PGA TOUR event, you know, it definitely boosts up your resume, your confidence. Definitely learn a thing or two seeing the top players out here and definitely try to mimic them. Definitely make me a better person, improves me as a person, not just my game, my mental side as well.

Q. You spoke about mimicking. Is there one point in particular that you remember from any of the PGA TOUR players?

BEN LEONG: Yeah, they're just sticking to their game plan, staying patient and not overreacting over a bad bounce or bad break. Just got to learn from them definitely.

Q. Considering the first round that you had, are you disappointed with how the week progressed for you?

BEN LEONG: Like I said, could have been better, it could have been worse. I could have been sitting back home watching it on TV. You know, we try to look at the positives and not -- life is too short to get down on it. Yeah, I'm looking forward to heading back home, rest up and prepare. You never know what's going to happen in the World Cup.

Q. Can you describe your last moments before you're off for a month?

BEN LEONG: Like I said, it's been an up and down week, a lot of bogeys, a lot of birdies. Yeah, just try to keep my emotions more intact definitely. Yeah, that's thing I need to work on.

I just want to thank CIMB for making this happen again. It's great bringing a PGA TOUR event back in Malaysia for the last couple years and also this year and we look forward to having more PGA TOUR events here in Malaysia courtesy of CIMB Group.

Big shout out to TPC KL for hosting us, for re-turfing the fairways. The golf course was in great shape. I'm sure the players are really enjoying it.

And also to the fans and volunteers that came out and supported the tournament. Hopefully we can see a lot more of them coming out the next couple years.
