
Q. Does the stall in play from tonight to tomorrow morning almost play into your hands a little bit in that JT's momentum is maybe stalled?

ADAM SCOTT: There's so much golf to play, I hope so. The main thing was again not to make any errors, and worst I could have done is I make a bogey and he makes an eagle and you wait. So I'm happy with what I did out there. I'm not really influencing what he does at this point in the tourney. It feel likes it's late in the tourney, but it's only halfway.

Q. How important was it to make par on 2 and just kind of stay in there?

ADAM SCOTT: Yeah, it's been kind of the theme of the week for me. I've managed to just scramble well. I don't really know what my stats are, but I haven't made a lot of bogeys. So I think, you know, I'm going to have to do that all day tomorrow, but if I can have some good stuff in between, then it goes a long way.

Q. Is it helpful that they're not going to re-pair and that you can kind of stay paired with Justin all day?

ADAM SCOTT: Yeah, that's good if I am keeping up with him or ahead of him. Hopefully, it's all good. It's a big day, a lot of golf. It's a great day to get your rhythm early and make a move. There's a lot of guys up there at the moment, and someone is, and if it's Justin or I, then you can kind of separate and hopefully by the middle of the final round you've taken a whole bunch of guys out of the equation.

Q. And finally, just thoughts on playing 33 and a half holes tomorrow?

ADAM SCOTT: I'm pretty rested in fairness. Try and get a good sleep tonight. It's going to be a quick turnaround, we're back in 12 hours or less than 12. Wrap it up and I'm looking forward to tomorrow. I'm in great shape.
