

ADAM LONG (-9)

Q. Adam, I thought that was a really solid, well-played round of golf. You're averaging just like 75 feet of putts per day, 150 total. That's really solid play.

ADAM LONG: Yeah, was a little more consistent today. I hit a few more fairways, which was helpful. Missed one shot really all day that cost me, but all in all it was a good start.

Q. Speaking of helpful, tell me about the fifth hole, par 5.

ADAM LONG: Oh, yeah. Just hit a tee shot, got to kind of hope it doesn't clip any tree branches if you're cutting the corner a bit. Got down there, got a nice kick and only had about 190 to the hole. Hit a 6-iron about as good as I can hit it and I think it probably took a good bounce or two to get as close as it did, but ended up five feet or so and holed it.

Q. Yeah, eagle is always nice on the scorecard. With the marine layer coming in, with some fog this morning, was the golf course softer at all?

ADAM LONG: Yeah, I thought it would be. Fairways maybe a bit, but the greens were still super firm. The first two holes, all three of us were just bouncing them over, they were still firm that early. But throughout the day the wind, if anything, died down a bit and I think we'll see some low scores this afternoon.

Q. Are you ready for the weekend? You're a winner on the PGA TOUR at the American Express, maybe a little bit of a plateau during the summer, now you're back to playing well.

ADAM LONG: Yeah, just try to get in those positions as much as possible and getting more and more comfortable being up there with the lead and hopefully we'll keep making birdies.

Q. The range session after the round yesterday, how big an impact did that have for your second round?

ADAM LONG: Yeah, I think it helped. I hit plenty of balls and just kind of the same stuff I already know that I'm doing. I just get a little stuck on the way down and trying to keep the club out in front of me a little bit, and yeah, it helped.
