

ROUND 3 INTERVIEW
October 12, 2019

BRANDON WU (-8)

Q. Just talk about what it takes to shoot those consistent scores out here.

BRANDON WU: Yeah, driving it in the fairway is the biggest plus out here. I think I've only hit a couple from the rough all week and that's the key to playing well out here, I believe.

Q. I looked at the stats a little bit and you had a lot of pars, so you kind of pick your spots where to go for the birdies then?

BRANDON WU: I would say so. I mean, I hit a lot of greens. I think I only missed one really, or two today in this third round. So I have a lot of chances. I mean, when they pour in, then that's great and I can make a lot of birdies. But I try to -- 20 feet on every green is not bad. I'm a pretty good putter I'd say, so I like to take those chances.

Q. As far as the course conditions from yesterday to today, what was the biggest difference?

BRANDON WU: Yeah. I mean, we hadn't really seen wind like this all week, so starting yesterday afternoon it was kind of -- we knew it would be a little tougher. Luckily, I've played in some strong wind the past couple -- the past month or so, so I felt well prepared for that. Yeah, I've just tried to stay aggressive and hit good shots.

Q. What's your mindset going into the final round for tomorrow then?

BRANDON WU: I don't think anything's changed. I mean, just try to hit fairways and greens. I think that's the key to playing well. The greens are really good, so hopefully roll a few in.

Q. You positioned yourself pretty well.

BRANDON WU: Yeah. I would say I think I just go out and try to play my best. I'm not too concerned with where I end up falling. I think just kind of add them up at the end and see how it goes. Yeah, I think if I'm playing well, I can definitely compete out here, so that's what I'm trying to do.

Q. You're making your professional debut this week. You said you feel like you can compete out here. Was that your expectation coming into the week, did you feel that kind of confidence?

BRANDON WU: Yeah, for sure. I felt like if I was playing well, I could go out and contend and try to win this thing. I have been playing well for three days, so yeah.
