

ROUND 4 INTERVIEW
February 16, 2020

SUNG KANG (-9)

Q. How would you assess how your day went for you today?

SUNG KANG: It was good. We did what we needed to do. Actually, this was kind of weird because I've been hitting it so good lately and we've been kind of being too aggressive. He kind of reminds me I suck at it, so then I actually don't go for it too hard and not taking too aggressive line. Also we have some problem with some communications and then sometime let's say I'm saying left right, he says right to left and then it kind of affects a little bit if I miss the putt, kind of mental hits me. So I'm like, Damon sucks, just sometimes we both suck, so don't be too cocky. And so sometime be aggressive and smart and then believe in my guts and then just whatever I feel comfortable with, that worked out pretty good today. Hung in there really nicely today, it was tough out there.

Q. Pleased with how you finished off the round?

SUNG KANG: First three rounds I started off really nicely and kind of collapsed a little bit on the back nine. After I make one bogey, I make like three bogeys in a row, I did it twice. So at least today I start off really nicely and then I make double and a bogey and try to get it back. I got it back to even par after that front nine. On the back nine we're just thinking just finish strong, just hang in there, it's going to be tough. Those holes are really hard. I birdied 11 and 17, which I really needed to make birdie, and then parred the other holes. I played pretty good on the back nine, too.

Q. How much confidence does this give you going forward?

SUNG KANG: I don't know. Every week's different. Really depends on what I'm doing that week. I don't think it really changes that much.
