

PAUL BROADHURST (-15, playoff in progress)

Q. Paul, just what a day. Where are you emotionally?

PAUL BROADHURST: Tired, I think. First time I've been involved in a six-hole playoff, or more than that, seven-hole playoff at least. Yeah, I played great today. I started off really well. I played the front nine well all week and then struggled around the back nine. I played good on the back nine today, got it around in, what, 3 under and thought maybe have a chance.

But Kevin's one of the best putters out here and I heard him hole a nice one on 16 and then he made the bomb on the last to get into the playoff. It wasn't a surprise.

I'm pleased. It's been a while since I've been up there. I've had a bit of a frustrating spell since we've come back. I've been playing reasonably steady, but not getting up there. Putter's been really quiet. I'm pleased to be in contention again.

Q. Didn't seem like there was much discussion between you two, you guys were going to keep going no matter what, right?

PAUL BROADHURST: Run around, I think. As quick as I've ever played six holes. I didn't dream we'd get six holes in. I thought a couple holes. No, I mean, we didn't have time to talk, it was just get on with the job and may the best man win.

Q. Do you have a room booked for the night?

PAUL BROADHURST: Yeah, we're not flying until tomorrow, so I've got a bit of time in the morning fortunately.

Q. Will it be tough to sleep tonight or will it be weird just --

PAUL BROADHURST: I don't know. I'll let you know in the morning. No, going to go back, we'll have a meal back at the house we're renting and get up nice and early and see what happens
