
Q. Incredibly tough conditions Thursday, incredibly tough conditions today. What did you do better than be everybody else?

LUCAS HERBERT: I don't really know. I felt like I grinded really hard out there. Obviously just through that middle patch there was just so tough. You just hit good shots, good putts, it just didn't get rewarded and you could kick yourself. Just had to stay patient, wait for those opportunities to come and thankfully they came at the right time for me.

Q. You told Rex Hoggard yesterday you like when conditions are tough. Do you like playing in them or do they just suit your personality?

LUCAS HERBERT: I think both. I love playing when it's really hard. I think it makes you be that little bit better and it just eliminates the guys who maybe aren't as good that are hitting shots that don't get affected by wind or rain as much. I just enjoyed the struggle out there as well today. There was times where I was nearly sitting on the ground behind an umbrella and just embracing that was so much fun.

Q. Read some quotes on social media last night from some of your country mates who know you well and they say you're afraid of nobody. What does this win say about the future for your career?

LUCAS HERBERT: I've only had two minutes to think about it because I've been trying to push it so far out of my mind, but it just opens up so many doors for me. It's just so exciting being able to play out here now, pick a schedule.

It's been tough for the guys out of the Korn Ferry Finals and regular season category earlier this year, we haven't got a lot of starts. Yeah, to be sort of out of that battle and be able to get into some of these really big events, I'm looking forward to it so much.

Q. You honor your country mate, Luke the Duck on your hat, you have the head cover as well, the late Jarrod Lyle, a friend to everybody. Did you feel like maybe he was shining down on you today?

LUCAS HERBERT: Would have liked Jarrod to knock that one in on 18 for me.

But no, I mean, Jarrod, it wouldn't surprise me if Jarrod was looking down on me. There's not many humans better than him in the world. I wish there was more people like him and I wish he was still around. Every time I wear that Luke the Duck pin and the head covers and everything, I do it with pride. He's someone that I want to honor and make sure I remember for a long time. Yeah, everything, all my thoughts and everything with Jarrod at the moment now that you mention that and, you know, obviously with everything he's done in the game.
