

TOM HOGE (-12)

Q. What was the most satisfying about today's round?

TOM HOGE: That we finished and we're in a warm building here.

Q. How about your play?

TOM HOGE: I was cold out there the whole day. I felt good with the way I was striking it and I drove it well most of the day, drove it in play, and my iron game's always pretty good here. I want to say it was easy, but I felt like I tried to make it easy out there, hit a lot of greens. When I did miss the greens I was chipping back into the wind so I had a little more control over it. But it was a difficult day, difficult putting. Fortunate to be done.

Q. What do you think about your position for tomorrow and looking forward to that position?

TOM HOGE: Yeah, in a good spot. Looks like we might have a little bit better weather tomorrow, so a few more opportunities. I've been playing well, just hope to make a few more putts.

Q. Given that it looks like everyone's going to be chasing the leader, would you rather have it like this or a little bit warmer, less windy, friendlier?

TOM HOGE: That sounds pretty nice, a little warmer. It goes both ways. I played with Talor the first two days. He's been hitting it very well, very in control of what he's doing, so it might favor us a little more where we have better scoring conditions where we can be a little bit more aggressive, make a few more birdies and maybe chase him down.

Q. Did you guys overlap at all in college?

TOM HOGE: Talor? I think he's a little bit younger than I am. I don't remember playing with him in college, but played with him a fair amount out here.

Q. Where are you staying this week?

TOM HOGE: I'm staying in the Hampton Inn right here in the circle.

Q. What room number? No family or anything?

TOM HOGE: Nope.

Q. What do you do in a hotel room? Like how do you fill your time when the round is over?

TOM HOGE: A lot of downtime. I'm a big college football fan and TCU's looking for a new head coach, so a lot of time keeping up with that.

Q. Does it make it easier with shorter days, a quicker turnaround?

TOM HOGE: A little bit, yeah. Just a lot of downtime. Netflix, that sort of stuff.

Q. What's the biggest thing you feel like over the years you've improved at?

TOM HOGE: I would say more than anything just kind of managing a tournament, if that makes sense. Days like today being very patient, knowing that everybody else is kind of just struggling right around par. You don't really have to go out and do anything real aggressive or be that exciting, but just be kind of boring and the score adds up.

Q. Are you looking forward to being able to put the clubs away?

TOM HOGE: That will be nice. I've played a lot this year. I think this is maybe 33 or 34 for me for the year, so yes, I am looking forward to it.

Q. What's your Netflix show this weekend?

TOM HOGE: We started that new Tiger King season two. It's not quite as good as season one, I'll say that.

Q. How can it be, right?

TOM HOGE: Exactly.
