

VERITEX BANK CHAMPIONSHIP

ROUND 2 INTERVIEW

April 14, 2023

BRETT DREWITT (-12)

Q. All right, Brett, great start to the tournament, two good rounds under your belt. Just kind of walk us through what's been going right and how your game's feeling.

BRETT DREWITT: I've been driving the ball good. Kind of actually been struggling with my driver all year, lots of good finishes, but yeah, getting myself in play, holing putts, getting up and down when I need to get up and down to keep the rounds going and hitting some good iron shots along the way. So everything feels like it's starting to click, which is good.

Q. How's it feel having this consistent three top-10 finishes and then heading into this week? That's pretty impressive for out here.

BRETT DREWITT: Yeah, it's obviously been my best start to a season in my career. I just feel really confident. I'm swinging the club really well, doing a lot of good work with my coach back at TPC Sawgrass. Yeah, just everything's just starting to click now. I was holding on there for a little while there when I was finishing top-5s and stuff, but I think I'm starting to drive the ball better now so I can give myself some more chances.

Q. What was it like just getting into Honda and having a good result there and just being back in that Tour setting, what did that do for you?

BRETT DREWITT: Obviously gave me some confidence. You know, I feel like that's where I belong, so it was nice. It was like a bonus to get out there. I know Monday qualifiers are really hard, I'd been playing well, I'd been playing well enough with some good finishes that I just wanted to give myself one start to prove that I can still, you know, be out there. And like I said, I didn't drive the ball very well at Honda. I got the ball up and down, I putted really well, kind of keep myself in it. Like I said, now that I'm driving the ball better, I think I can get better from here.

Q. When did you start driving it better? Was there like a day or a practice session that it clicked and you were like, I got this?

BRETT DREWITT: I switched a couple things up in Savannah. I've been working on trying to strengthen my grip a little bit. My coach and I, we did some work after Savannah. I wasn't very confident in Savannah off the tee, I hit a lot of 3-woods, a lot of 3-irons, gave myself looks, but obviously I didn't go to Chile for certain reasons. I found something in those two weeks coming into here and it's good that I could take it out onto the course these first two rounds and keep it going and hopefully for the rest of the season.

Q. What do you think it was that kind of held you back results-wise last year on the PGA TOUR?

BRETT DREWITT: I dug myself in a hole, didn't get off to a good start. Probably a little fatigued after a long season in the fall. Then I just got into bad habits and from there I just kept making bad decisions. It was a season I'm going to learn from but forget at the same time.

Q. Has this start allowed you to kind of wash that out and move you back into a positive mojo when you're on the course?

BRETT DREWITT: 100 percent. To be honest, it was probably a blessing in disguise. I Mondayed into the RSM, but that was the only event I played up until Bahamas, so I had almost six months off I guess, five months. I guess I fell in love with the game again, I fell in love with the grind and I did some good work with my coach in the offseason as well. I was able to come out here and start off the season fresh and focused on what I wanted to do.
