

ROUND 4 QUICK QUOTES
22 October 2023

ERIC COLE

Q. Just sum up the day for me. Still finishing T-2, birdieing the last two holes, I know it's a little, yeah, bittersweet a little bit, but just thoughts?

ERIC COLE: Yeah, no, I thought today was going to go a little different. Played the first hole perfectly, and then after that I didn't really have my A-game to say the least. So struggled a little bit ball-striking and, you know, didn't really make much either other than the last two holes there. Just wasn't my day, I guess.

Q. Again, just continuing to rack up some good finishes here. Do you take a lot of confidence from a week like this just considering how consistent you've been?

ERIC COLE: For sure. It's definitely a learning experience. Not having my best stuff today, I was out there searching, trying stuff, seeing what worked, what didn't. I think that's something that could definitely help me a lot in the future.
