

BYEONG HUN AN (-18)

Q. Ben, how would you kind of characterize this long day?

BYEONG HUN AN: Looks like I'm going to come up a little bit short, but it's obviously disappointing, I'm not going to -- but performance overall today, I think it was pretty decent. I hung in there. It wasn't my best ball-striking day, but I made a lot of putts that mattered at certain times so I think that was a big bonus for me.

Q. You've seen a lot of obviously progress this whole season and now it obviously continues into the Playoffs. What do you think you'll doing a little bit better these next couple weeks to propel yourself to Atlanta and the TOUR Championship?

BYEONG HUN AN: Yeah, so that was my goal, I guess, all my career. I never made it to East Lake. That was my goal for the year. And then I played just really steady golf all year, I think. Didn't really have a really good finish until the Scottish and today, I guess. But, you know, it's trending. That's what me and my coach say, it's trending. It's not just about this year, but you're looking ahead to five years and I'm trying to be the best golfer in the world out there. But it takes effort, it takes work. We're heading in the right direction, so I'm very happy for that.

Q. Do you feel like your game is kind of circa a few years ago when you were playing some top golf?

BYEONG HUN AN: That's what I believe in, that's what my team believes in. I'm playing my best golf right now. We still believe there's room for improvement. So I'm definitely playing better than what I did. I feel I'm playing the best golf right now and hopefully it gets better from here.
