

ROUND 1 QUICK QUOTES
November 9, 2023

HARRISON FRAZAR (-6)

Q. A lot of golf left, but obviously 6 under today, you've got to like where you stand after Round 1.

HARRISON FRAZAR: Yeah, yeah, a good start. I hit a few good shots early, capitalized on them. I think I birdied three out of the first five, then just kind of hung in there for a while. Maybe misplayed a few. Made a decent par save and then I hit -- trying to remember -- 14, I think it's 14, hit it in there about four-and-a-half feet and then hit it about eight feet on 15 and hit it about a foot on 16. And then of course 18, what a horrible wedge shot, but I made the putt.

Q. Still riding the momentum from Dominion?

HARRISON FRAZAR: Yeah, a little bit. A lot has transpired since. Yeah, I still feel good, I feel confident. I feel like I belong and I feel comfortable out here. Yeah, just take advantage of it.

Q. Is there anything about this course that like really suits your game right now?

HARRISON FRAZAR: Not really, except the greens are perfect. I feel really good with the putter, so if you take away the imperfections and take away the chances of bad roll, it just kind of helps you keep that confidence going.

Q. I want to go back to did you not feel like you belonged before you won?

HARRISON FRAZAR: Oh, no, I'm not going to say that. I just didn't know and now I guess I know I do. So I felt like I could play with 'em, I felt like I belonged out here, but now it's justified.

Q. Have you shared the victory with your father yet? Have you sat down and watched?

HARRISON FRAZAR: No, we haven't sat down and watched, but I've been with him a couple of times since. He's very proud. He knew, he knew that I won. But it's funny, last week, so I go back home on Monday and of course it was right back to the same, he knew I double bogeyed the 17th last week, too. Some things never change. But yes, he knows and he's very proud.

Q. How's he doing?

HARRISON FRAZAR: It's a struggle. He's in a memory care facility, but he's looked after and he's healthy. I mean, not healthy, but he's safe. That's all that matters.

So next week when I get home we'll be able to spend some good time with him.

Q. You also mentioned after you won that during your struggles you held down some jobs. What were they?

HARRISON FRAZAR: Well, so I went to work for Benchmark Bank and do business marketing for them, for the bank side and the title, and they're more family now than a group of co-workers. They've been so good to me, I love 'em to death and they support me.

Yeah, it's just commercial real estate and finance, which is all over the place where I live and all over Dallas, Texas. It's a great fit and it's fun, but we'll put that on the back burner for a while.

Q. Did you know much about it before you got into it?

HARRISON FRAZAR: Actually, when I got out of college I went to work for a commercial real estate company for about a year before I turned professional.

No, I don't know any more than just the fact that a lot of friends are in it and we spend a lot of time watching it and talking about it, but I've never actually, you know, executed any of the stuff in it.

Q. That's for down the road.

HARRISON FRAZAR: Yeah, do that later.
