

ROUND 4 QUICK QUOTES
November 19, 2023

CARL YUAN (-7)

Q. So, Carl, how would you kind of describe your week as a whole, finishing right around that bubble and waiting to see what happens?

CARL YUAN: Yeah, it's definitely right on the bubble. Coming to the week, yeah, definitely it was a pressure week, not gonna lie. I did pretty good getting in the weekend, but on the weekend physically I didn't feel great, my back was really bugging me. But I really hang tight in there, try to do best I can, see how it turns out. I mean, I didn't leave any out there, I gave it all. If it's good, it's good. If it's not, play better.

Q. You've had an uptick in results since June. Canada was your first top-20 of the season and you finished fourth last -- what do you attribute that turnaround to in your results?

CARL YUAN: I think definitely I had a rough start of the season. My rookie year. Definitely things to be learned. Yeah, I think it's a good learning curve for me putting up good rounds, good tournaments, just having experience being in the final group, stuff. Like that definitely contribute to that I had a good finish last week, put myself in position. Yeah, I think it's a great season for me to learn and grow on.

Q. How are you going to spend the next hour or so? Are you going to be paying attention to this or just take off?

CARL YUAN: I'll probably just take off. I've done my job. Yeah, if it's good enough, it's good enough. If not, it is what it is.

Q. If you have conditional status, will you go to Q-School?

CARL YUAN: Yeah, I'll probably go to Q-School. It's right at home, so definitely if I finish top-5 in Q-School, it's still better than 126.

Q. What's the most pressure you felt this week?

CARL YUAN: This week, I'll probably say more on the weekend I'll say, not gonna lie, I think it's better if I know if I need to go out and shoot an 8 under to make something happen, then I go out and shoot 3, 4 under.

Q. What was -- did you look at the projections at all last night or this morning?

CARL YUAN: I mean, I knew what I need to do today, if I come out shoot 3, 4 under, I'll be

OK. I didn't do that, but I still give it all toward the end, so yeah.

Q. What's the emotion like right now? What are you feeling?

CARL YUAN: Honestly, kind of relieved it's over, the season is over. 126, that means not that bad of a spot. Getting handful of tournaments, so not too worried about that since I had one year under my belt. I hope I get off to a better start next year and yeah, just get in more tournaments and play good.

Q. What's it mean to you to be a PGA TOUR member?

CARL YUAN: I mean, it's what I dreamed of. Probably a dream job for a lot of people, and I'm glad to say this is what I can do. Yeah, I'm excited for it.

Q. When did your back start hurting?

CARL YUAN: The bed at the Airbnb is just too soft for me, started bugging me on like Thursday night. Yeah, I could have done a better job with it. You know, I tried to rehab and do stuff like that, but definitely bugged me a little bit. You know, that comes with the profession. I've got to handle my body well. It's my responsibility.
