

ROUND 3 QUICK QUOTES
March 9, 2024

JIMMY STANGER (-16)

Q. All right, Jimmy, great round today. If we can just get a few comments in general about today.

JIMMY STANGER: Yeah, tough track today. That wind was blowing a little more out of the east today than the last few days, which meant every single hole was a crosswind either from my back left to right or right to left, so it was quite a test. It was just fun to kind of be in contention and feel those emotions that you don't get to feel every day.

Q. Just three bogeys through 54 holes. I think you birdied 2, 3 and a all three days.

JIMMY STANGER: I think so.

Q. You've taken well to the course it seems like.

MODERATOR: Yeah, it's just a fun track to play. I'm trying to take it one shot at a time. It was fun to get those holes the last three days, hopefully we can get off to a hot start tomorrow, but either way I think I have a good chance. So the game feels solid.

Q. And I couldn't help overhear Billy Ray's question to you about your pairing tomorrow. How cool is that going to be?

JIMMY STANGER: Yeah, I haven't seen if it's final yet, but man to play with Ben Kohles, play in the final group at a PGA TOUR event with a good friend who also fellow UVA guy would be awesome. I think it shows the talent that's coming out of that school and the job that Bowen Sargent's done there.

Q. And final question, you've proven you can win, you did that last year on Korn Ferry Tour. Do you consider yourself pretty good at keeping even keel, not getting too far ahead of yourself? Are you pretty mellow like that?

JIMMY STANGER: Yeah, it's funny, people who watch me say, man, you look so calm and inside I'm a mess. We'll see what happens. I have my routines built in, got some Bible versus in my yardage book that I'm reading out there and trying to think about. Ultimately golf's just a game. It's a heck of a game, I think it's the greatest game, but it's still just a game.
